Vision

PSA as the leader in industry-relevant TVET

"Our greatest weakness lies in giving up. The most certain way to succeed is always to try just one more time."

Thomas A. Edison

Mission

To produce holistic graduates with entrepreneurial potentials by providing access to dynamic, quality and recognized TVET programmes through a responsive curriculum.

PSA walks of fame

National Intellectual Property Award

PSA has victoriously won the Gold Medal in the National Intellectual Property Award (Intellectual Property Creator Category) through the ‘Portable Elbow Prototype Rehabilitation Device’ on July 18, 2017 at Pullman, Bangsar. Comparing to the existing products in the market, this product is not only light and portable, it also comes with a very reasonable price. As the main purpose of this product is to provide continuous passive motion (CPM) exercises to patients who have neurological problems such as stroke and traumatic brain injuries that affect their arm, it also offers flexibility to its users as they can adjust the angle, timing and speed according to their condition.

Polytechnic Malaysia Debate & Elocution Festival 5.0

Contending against 36 debate teams at the Ibrahim Sultan Polytechnic, PSA won the 1st and 2nd place in the British Parliamentary style Debate Competition. PSA was also the 1st runner up in the Elocution Competition against 18 other contestants which made PSA the overall champion for the Polytechnic Malaysia Debate And Elocution Festival 5.0 (Department of Polytechnic Education’s Director General’s Award).

WAGGGS

Miss Lee Yong Yong, a lecturer and polytechnic girl guide leader received a scholarship from World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), represented Malaysia with other two Malaysian participants at World Centre Sangam, India to undergo a leadership programme from 9-18 September 2017. May girl guides of PSA soar to greater heights!

Raise Your Sword, Conquer The Throne

PSA English Week

Aimed towards burgeoning an English Speaking community in PSA, JPA, in collaboration with JPG, had taken this opportunity to organise PSA English Week from 7-11 August 2017. With the theme 'Raise your sword, conquer the throne', JPA called for English Language enthusiasts to take part in competitions like Debate, News Casting, Story Telling and Busking to further uncover the students's talents and flairs. Station games were also set up at all the departments to promote a fun and interactive language learning environment. This programme which was entirely piloted by the Students' Representative Council, with very minimal supervision by the lecturers, was a complete success in every way.

PSA 19th Convocation Ceremony 2017

30th September 2017 marks a very special day for PSA's fresh batch of graduates as they celebrated the highest point in their academic journey. To wrap up their years of sweat and toil in PSA, the PSA's 19th Convocation Ceremony witness the commencement of Bachelor's Degree, Diploma and Certificate to 994 graduates. This significant and glorious event was held in two sessions; the morning session involved 225 graduates from the Civil Engineering Department and 243 graduates from the Electrical Engineering. As for the a afternoon session, the departments involved were the Commerce Department and Mechanical Engineering Department with 311 and 185 graduates each. Hats off to all graduates and good luck on your new adventure!

Poly's Voice 2017

Poly's Voice 2017, is a talent search programme designed to unleash polytechnic students' talents to see who has the makings of an excellent Master of Ceremony. A total of 32 students from 30 polytechnics from all over the country participated in the first ever programme. As this programme embraces some key elements like self discipline, leadership, ethics, communication, self-expression, and creativity, it is hoped that this can be a stepping stone to prep the participants to meet the demands of the job market. PSA student, Muhammad Syairul Islam Bin Basmullah was chosen as the 1st runner up and the special Jury Award 'Anugerah Khas Bitara Pilihan Juri' was awarded to Ahmad Faiq Ariff. Way to go boys!

Reaching Out Beyond Borders

Congratulations to YES Volunteers from PSA who were selected to represent Malaysian Polytechnics and be part of the International Student Volunteer Mission.
