

Tonasco is a reputable manufacturer of precision components and modules in high-mix low-volume, with specialization in very complex machining, high surface finishing and product cleanliness.

We are an established supplier for many major global players in the Optical, Semicon, Diagnostics, Medical, and Life Science industries.

Quality Control Technician Trainee (Mechanical)

Responsibilities:

- Product Quality inspection of precision mechanical parts, materials within stipulated timeframe, using QC tools such as CMM, caliper, micrometer etc.
- Record the dimension of components/parts in standard QC report format and analyse the findings for discrepancy.
- Raised Defective Material Reports (DMRs), troubleshoot and resolve quality issues by coordinating with other departments.
- When able to master more advanced QC competency, responsible to program and perform measuring tasks with fully automated measuring instruments, such as CMM/Vision Inspection machines.

Requirements:

- Minimum Diploma in Mechanical Engineering or related discipline.
- Fresh graduate with QC exposure during internship. Those with similar QC work experience will be given priority.
- Compulsory to be well-versed in reading 3D technical drawings.
- Able to use common measuring equipment. Further training in high precision QC procedures and QC Tools will be provided.
- ERP experience is a plus but not essential, further training will be provided.
- Must be able to work OT when needed.
- Precise, positive attitude, team player and able to function under minimal supervision.

SCAN ME